Gen. Henkle complained of being unwell, however, and, at his suggestion, the hearing was positioned until Morday at noon. Gen. Henkle filed the affidavit of Mrs. Justina Bernarzd, to the effect that she frequently called at Wright's house to sell goods, and about a month before the day of the homicide she sold Wright some pairs of socks, white and blue mixed, and she identified a pair shown her as being of the lot. Also, affidavits of William Whelan, who swears that he is the son of Mrs. Keogh, was at home all day Monday before Christmas, and that Margaret Wood could not have been there from 9 to 12 o'clock without he knowing it, and if she was there at all it was for a short time only. An affidavit of Richard H. Mason corroborates Whe an. There is also an affidavit of Mrs. Francis Koogh, who says that she knows Margaret Wood and Wright; thinks that Mrs. Wood came to her house on the morning of the homic de; but is confident she could not have been there from 9 to 12 o'clock.

THE BOOKS OF THE POINT LOOKOUT RAIL-THE BOOKS OF THE POINT LOOKOUT RAILROAD COMPANY—The Company Recover Them by a Writ of Replevin.—There was a case before Justice Walter to-day which excited considerable interest. The suit was brought by one John Conner agt. S. T. Suit, president of the the Washington City and Point Lookout railroad company, to recover $37 alleged to be due him by the company. At this time there is a suit pending in the Circuit Court in the pare suit pending in the Circuit Court in the name of H. Mr. N. H. Miller appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Wm. B. Webb and Dancan S. Wal-ker for the defendant. The writ against Brooke not having been executed by the marshal, and Brooke having been summoned to bring the books as evidence, and he having them present, one of the marshal's deputies attempted to execute the writ in the justice's office. The trial then pre-ceeded, and the books showing that there was due Conner $54, judgment was given in his favor for that amount. FMANCIPATION DAY IN THE DISTRICT-AC meeting of delegates from the various legislative districts was held last night, for the purpose of completing arrangements for the cell-bration of Emancipation day (Wednesday next) in the District of Columbia, Dr. J. L. N. Bowen occupied the chair, with Mr. George W. Smith, secretary. Mr. Underwood, from the commit-tee of arrangements, stated that through the kindness of Mr. John W. Thompson they had been able to secure the Inauguration Ball building for the day, for the sum of $150. He also stated that it was the intention of the committee to close the festivities with a ball, by which they expected to realize the amount of the expense of the building. Mr. W. C. Costin was elected sergeant-at-arms. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. J. W. Thompson and other gentlemen for courtesies extended.

Mr. Jepifer offered a re-olution, which was adopted, authorizing the chairmen and secretary of the meeting, and the chief marshal of the procession, to call as early as practicable a mass meeting of the emancipated citizens of the District, for the purpose of organizing an "Emancipation Association," which shall meet every three months until a proper or permanent organization will be established. The route of the procession was extended eastward as far as 10th street.

THE BOARD OF APPEALS have been engaged in the consideration of assessment appeals that have accumulated since the commencement of the session. A large number have been dis-posed of during the week, and the work will probably be completed by Wednesday next. The number of appeals this year is far below that of last year, being less than one thousand this year as compared with eight thousand last year. The board is required by law to remain in session thirty days, commencing on the 2d Monday in March. The superintendent of assessments, however, convened the board on the 4th of February in order to give the tax-payers ample opportunity to state their objections to the assessment, and have now been in session fifty-nine days. The preparation of the tax books is delayed by the action of the board. It will, therefore, be necessary to close its sessions at an early day. The board is organized as follows:— H. A. Hall, superintendent of assessment and taxes, president; Wm. Wall, for western section of the city; Riley A. Shinn. Georgetown; E. J. Middleton, county; G. A. Bohrer, eastern section; E. F. M. Fachtz, secretary; and F. W.

SUPPOSED MURDER AND SUICIDE .- The John Tener, whose dead body was found floating in the river off this city some weeks ago, and who, it was supposed, lived in Maryland, it has now been discovered, was a hand employed in the laying of the double track on the Alexandria and Washington railroad, who was well known in this city. As he attempted to borrow a loaded gun from the keeper of the toll gate between here and Washington, with the avowed inten-tion of putting an end to himself, a few days before the finding of his dead body, it is supposed that he committed suicide, and as he had on his person when found articles belonging to a man named George Bader, of Maryland, and as George Bader has been missing since a short time before the finding of Touer's body, it is also surmised that the latter was in some way implicated in the former's sudden disappearance, and probable death .- Alexandria Gazette.

HOLY SATURDAY-Close of Lond.-To-day is Holy Saturday, closing the solemn season of Lent. In the Catholic and Episcopal churches there were appropriate services, and although the weather was very inclement, large congrega-tions were in attendance. In the Catholic churches the blessing of the new fire from which the candles were re-lighted, and the blessing of the water employed in the sacra-ment of baptism and offices of the church were impressive ceremonies. In the mass to day at the "Gluria in Excelsis" the bells were rung. and the organ, (hushed since Holy Thursday,) was again used. To-morrow is Easter Sunday. and the services in all the churches comme merative of the triumphant resurrection of the Redcemer will be of a jubilant character. TO THE TEACHERS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

You are aware that your meeting of this morn-intended to be an inquiry into the cause the non-payment of your salaries was officially suppressed by a majority of the sub-board of the 4th school district. The official notice of the sub-board appears in the papers of this morning and states that "authority for holding such meeting has not been given." A statement of the facts of the case is due to you. At a meeting of the Teachers' Institute held in this same prohibited hall of the Jefferson, two weeks ago, this meeting was publicly announced. A majority of the trustees of the 4th district and other members of the board were present, and no exception was expressed by a single member. Over four weeks ago I obtained from the chairman of the sub-board, Mr. E. Champlin, leave to hold any meeting that the teachers might desire in the hall of the Jeffer on building, provided no expense to the board be incurred, and no interference with school dudies. The trustees of the 4th district have repentedly assured me that Mr. Champlin was the official head of the sub-board, as chairman, and that his decisions and orders might be regarded by me as coming officially from the sub-board. Mr. Champlin's signature hereto annexed will verify this statement. You therefore can easily see how I have been misled in calling the meeting in the Jefferson school, and I apologize to you for the gross blunder. I also apologize to the majority of the trustees who have closed the hall against the teachers, for my ignorance of their sentiments on the subject, because I was sure they were with us, and would aid us, as so many other trustees have done. To be inquiry. "What is the cruse of the non-payment of teachers?" may now be added the additional one, "Why was the board of health, has been selected by Gov.

the principal cities of Europe. The State de-partment has, by order of the President, fur-nished Dr. Verdi with a circular letter to al!

requesting them to give all the aid and facilities they can properly extend to him. Dr. Verdi has cherished the plan of inquiring into the sani-thinks that much economy can be secured in the management of sanitary affairs, as well as greater efficiency in the organization of the va-

AN INAPPROPRIATE NAME.—The name recently adopted by the Orange and Alexandria Midiand, Great Southern railroad, seems to be an inappropriate one, inasmuch as it has recently perfected arrangement with Mr. Garrett well ascertained that the Baltimore and Ohio Bladensburg to a point opposite Alexandria to connect by ferry-boats with the Orange and

THE NEW SONG OF A SHIRT. The song that I sing is a different thing From the sad one that used one's heart to wring.
When Hood made poverty, hunger and dirt Immortally true in the song of the shirt.
Perhaps in the case of a shirt to sell, My song will read pretty nearly as well. The shirt that I name no other can shame; It's a shirt without fault, suspicion or blame; Wrought of material so firm and fine, And so perfectly movided to its design, That the man could never be such a dunce As to wear any other, who wore this once. Gussett and seam are stitched by steam. And there's no occasion for men to dream, In wearing this shirt of perfect fit. And feeling uncommonly nice in it,)
That they're "wearing out" any "human lives, Either of mothers, or daughters, or wives. And so, to continue, you must understand

That this shirt, so carefully, nicely planned To suit the taste of the manly mind, And keep his temper serenely kind, Is a benefactor to every wife. Who values peace and a quiet life. It is clearly then, a blessing to me-This shirt whose beauty inspires my pen, This matchless work of progressive art— Warrant: d perfect in every part— Which he who has worn it once will swear The only shirt fit for a gentleman's wear.

And so I sing of the beautiful thing That suits all seasons, from Fall to Spring: A joy forever to one who knows The sweet complacence, the bland repose That attend the wearing of first-rate clothes!
If you'd like to know, you'll find the best
